East winds up to 10 mph shifting to the south in the afternoon. Highs 76 to 82. High 83F. Northeast winds up to 15 mph. Winds ENE at 10 to 15 mph.Moonrise3:07 pmA few clouds from time to time. East winds up to 15 mph. High 82°F Low 60°F Wind 10mph NE Precipitation Day: 20% Night: 20% Sunrise 7:00 am Sunset 6:20 pm Summary DayIsolated showers. Winds ENE at 10 to 20 mph.Clear skies. Breezy, with an east northeast wind 14 to 16 mph, with gusts as high as 22 mph. Highs around 83. Thursday: Mostly sunny. The GFS and ECMWF are showing a possible increase in showers Thursday and again during the weekend. Winds ENE at 10 to 20 mph. Satellite derived precipitable water (PW) confirms what we have observed with the overnight soundings – a relatively dry air mass remains over the islands. Northeast winds up to 10 mph. Winds ENE at 5 to 10 mph.Moonrise10:21 amMostly sunny skies. Chance of precipitation is 20%. Highs around 58 at the visitor center to around 54 at the summit. Moderate to locally fresh trades will hold into Thursday, transition to the light category Thursday night into Friday, then return to the moderate to fresh category over the weekend. Winds ENE at 5 to 10 mph.Moonrise2:16 pmA few passing clouds, otherwise generally sunny. East northeast wind 9 to 11 mph. Winds light and variable.Moonrise8:29 amA mainly sunny sky. The active pattern across the southern Pacific has continued over the past couple of days, which supports another small bump clipping the local area as it passes by early next week. Highs 78 to 83. Lows 52 to 64. Winds NE at 10 to 20 mph.A few clouds. East northeast wind around 10 mph. Upcountry Today: Sunny. East northeast wind around 8 mph. VFR conditions will prevail across the state with brief periods of MVFR cigs possible in developing showers. NightIsolated showers. NightMostly clear, with a low around 62. Moisture will remain limited through the TAF period, with isolated showers and a majority of cloud cover focused on windward slopes and inland along afternoon sea breezes. The lowering trend will continue into Thursday with surf heights dropping well below average for February. PW values are slightly higher over/near the Big Island. Winds E at 5 to 10 mph.Moonrise4:55 pmIntervals of clouds and sunshine. Low around 60F. This energy extrapolated out in time suggests surf heights will dip below the advisory levels by daybreak today, then continue to lower through the day. Expecting another brief return of light to moderate trade winds Thursday as the ridge lifts northward. Offshore buoy observations to the northwest reflect this and are now in line with the predicted levels this morning on the tail-end of this swell. Surf along east facing shores will trend up through the second half of the week as a small, easterly swell from a batch of fresh to strong trades upstream fills in. This combined with seas dipping below the Small Craft Advisory level (10 ft) has led to the cancellation of the advisories for surf and seas over exposed waters and coasts. A new, west-northwest swell (310 deg) is forecast to arrive late Thursday into Friday, followed by a larger west-northwest swell Saturday out of the same direction. This corresponded well with the model depictions for the winds at the time of the ASCAT pass, boosting confidence in the general wind forecast. Winds ENE at 15 to 25 mph.Mostly clear skies. Lows 60 to 67. The remaining islands will see light to moderate trades holding in place, but they too could see some localized sea breezes in places where the winds go light. Chance of rain 50 percent. Northeast winds up to 10 mph increasing to 10 to 15 mph after midnight. Highs 79 to 84. Highs 74 to 79 near the shore to around 62 near 5000 feet. Kaunakakai Today: Sunny. East winds around 10 mph. A front behind the ridge is moving to the east, and helping to push the ridge closer to the islands. Light winds becoming east up to 10 mph in the afternoon. Winds E at 10 to 15 mph.Moonrise4:00 pmSunshine and clouds mixed. Trade winds may strengthen again early next week. Central Maui Today: Sunny. Scattered thunderstorms developing in the afternoon. Winds NE at 10 to 20 mph.Clear. Maui Now Weather is brought to you by Blue Hawaiian Helicopters. Winds E at 5 to 10 mph.Moonrise11:31 amSunny, along with a few afternoon clouds. Low 63F. For the periods with light winds, expect localized land and sea breeze regimes to become established near the coasts. Low 61F. However, a period of tempo light ice IC conditions may develop across Kauai and Oahu after 1800z, as the band of mid and upper level moisture slowly pushes eastward. With any afternoon sea breezes there is the possibility for some cloud development along with a few isolated showers over interior and leeward areas. High 81°F Low 62°F Wind 13mph NE Precipitation Day: 20% Night: 20% Sunrise 7:01 am Sunset 6:20 pm Summary DayIsolated showers. Home Weather Kahului Two-week forecast°C Hour-by-hour weather for Kahului next 7 daysAdvertising Clear skies. Mostly sunny, with a high near 81. There is some uncertainty, since the GFS and ECMWF models have recently advertised stronger trade winds that have not materialized at longer time ranges. Lanai City Today: Sunny. Thursday: Sunny. Low 64F. Otherwise, an area of high pressure remains centered northeast of the state which will continue light east to southeast winds across the islands through tonight. High 82F. Winds ENE at 10 to 20 mph.Mostly clear skies. Lows 59 to 64. Low around 65F. Partly cloudy, with a low around 63. Chance of rain 20 percent. No AIRMETs are currently in effect. However, another front moving in from the northwest will push the ridge back towards the islands Friday weakning the winds. High 82°F Low 63°F Wind 16mph NE Precipitation Day: 20% Night: 20% Sunrise 7:01 am Sunset 6:19 pm Summary DayIsolated showers after noon. East winds 10 to 15 mph. Photo Credit: Tyler Rooke Today: Sunny. Discussion Have made some minor tweaks to the forecast with the morning package, but no change to the general forecast philosophy. Winds ENE at 10 to 15 mph. Winds ENE at 10 to 15 mph.Partly cloudy early. South Side Today: Sunny. Mostly sunny, with a high near 82. Highs 72 to 79. High 81F. Winds are expected to increase over the the weekend, though a lingering surface trough to the north could limit some of that increase. Tonight: Mostly clear. Check out their Maui Helicopter Tours today! Data Courtesy of NOAA.gov Isolated showers in the evening. East Maui Today: Mostly sunny with isolated showers. Highs around 82. Isolated showers in the morning. Low near 65F. Showers will continue to be focused over windward slopes, with an increase in rainfall possible this weekend. Northeast wind 5 to 11 mph. Light winds becoming northeast around 10 mph after midnight. North Shore Today: Mostly sunny with isolated showers. East winds up to 10 mph. A stable air mass overhead is limiting rainfall totals. Breezy, with a northeast wind 13 to 16 mph, with gusts as high as 22 mph. Northeast winds 10 to 15 mph. The GFS and ECMWF models are showing the ridge aloft eroding during the weekend, which could enhance rainfall. Winds ENE at 10 to 20 mph.A few clouds. Marine Trades over the island waters will fluctuate from light to moderate levels through the upcoming weekend, due to the ongoing progressive pattern across the northern Pacific – featuring a series of fronts passing close enough to shunt the ridge southward into the area periodically. Highs 71 to 81. As expected, lighter winds are found over Kauai and Oahu as a surface ridge sinks southward towards the islands. Winds NNE at 10 to 15 mph.A mostly clear sky. Northwest winds up to 10 mph. Winds E at 5 to 10 mph.Moonrise12:07 pmExcept for a few afternoon clouds, mainly sunny. Surf along south facing shores will rise once again Thursday into Friday as a new, out-of-season, long-period southerly swell arrives from a recent gale passing east to southeast of New Zealand within Hawaii's swell window. Winds E at 5 to 10 mph.Moonrise9:47 amExcept for a few afternoon clouds, mainly sunny. Aviation A band of broken mid and upper lvl moisture will drift over the western islands this morning, in advance of a weakening cold front slowly approaching from the west. Chance of rain 40%. Partly cloudy, with a low around 62. Tonight: Partly cloudy with scattered showers. Surf will respond and may near advisory levels Friday for exposed north and west facing shores of the smaller islands, then likely exceed the advisory-levels with the second swell through the day Saturday. Highs 77 to 83. Stronger trades will be possible early next week. Night Mostly clear, with a low around 58. Partly cloudy, with a low around 60. HFO Watches/Warnings/Advisories None. Synopsis Trade winds will fluctuate between light and moderate strength through the weekend as a series of fronts pass north of the state. Lows around 61.
